NCSJ CONDEMNS MOSCOW AIRPORT BOMBING
January 25, 2011

NCSJ condemns the horrific bombing at Moscow's Domodedovo Airport and extends condolences from our members and leadership to the Russian people.

Chairman of NCSJ Richard Stone and President Alexander Smukler said, "For far too long, the city of Moscow and other Russian communities have borne the tragic consequences of attacks against unarmed civilians. We offer our deepest sympathy to the Russian Federation, in particular to the families and friends of those killed and injured.

"NCSJ continues to stand resolutely with the Russian people and with all those who fight against terrorism, in its many manifestations."
