Mr. Mark B. Levin
Executive Director,
NCSJ

Dear Mr. Levin!

I write to offer you my most sincere good wishes for your good health and well being on the occasion of the Purim celebration.

For centuries, Purim has been the symbol of the unity of the Jewish people. This celebration helps us see again the beautiful things in ordinary everyday life, even at the most unexpected moments. It also teaches us that even in times of danger, the Jewish people should not despair.

I hope these holidays will be bright and cheerful for you and your loved ones!

With warm regards,

LEONID NEVZLIN,

Senator, Deputy Chairman of the Committee for Foreign Affairs,
Council of Federation of Russian Parliament
